Looking expensive and glamorous on a budget is not a matter of money. It's a skill, and--like any other skill--it can be learned. In this invaluable book, style author Chiara Giuliani explains in her breezy and entertaining way how getting a polished look and achieving a chic allure is mostly a matter of know-how, sharing priceless tips that will allow you to achieve a top-star appearance while remaining on-budget. You'll learn the most effective "luxury skills" to (1) pick out stunning-looking but inexpensive items that will make you look pure luxe, (2) pick out top-quality pieces without paying a fortune for them, (3) get sensational-looking grooming without spending a high amount, and (4) develop mood, poise, and behavior in tune with the luxurious-looking lady you are going to be. All of these skills can be learned with simple and straightforward technical advice, and in this book, you'll learn how. You'll learn the cheats not only to become an attentive shopper but also to pick out what flatters your figure--as, when it comes to looking expensive, picking out the design most suitable to your body shape is essential. You'll learn the tips and hints to polish your look and poise, acquiring attitude and manners that make a woman unmistakably high class. Your newly achieved mood will soon become part of your personality--even if you are not rich, or classy, or sophisticated by birth. And you'll soon be amazed at how much better you will feel not only in your clothes but also in your relationships, both personal and professional. You will feel fulfilled in many aspects of your life, and more self-confident as well. You will soon achieve outstanding results that will infuse your whole style--and lifestyle. And you will soon become the beautiful, charming, and sophisticated lady of your dreams.

A wickedly funny, full-color, illustrated sendup of the trendy lifestyle publication GOOP. What is Glop? Glop is a business and a website. But Glop is also a feeling. It's about picking the right expensive organic eye cream that will make you fit seamlessly into the top tiers of high society and sits next to Bono at a 42-course seitan tasting dinner held in a sex dungeon deep beneath the North Pole. Glop is about being conscious to the tiny details of our lives—what to eat, where to buy your cashmere yoga pants, which juice cleanse will remove the most mercury toxins from both your body and your cashmere yoga pants. Glop is about you. In this scathingly humorous parody, Gabrielle Moss skewers the vanity, elitism, and silliness of the lifestyle website everyone loves to hate. Here are favorite recipes, detoxes, activities, cleanses, beauty tips, juice cleanses, vacation destinations, and a selection of hand creams that will open your third eye—plus lots of celebrity namedropping and more. Glop includes everything from the silly to sublime—make-at-home stem cell moisturizing repair masques, weekend colonics, restorative yoga poses (for when Sting is mad at you about that thing you did), and even the freshest bones for your bone broth. Here, too, are G's essential tips on parenthood, relationships, work and finances, entertaining, food (well, maybe not food), spirituality, beauty, fashion, home, gifts, kids, and more. Nothing in Glop is sacred—except for a few Indian cows you can't afford.

Although we have been successful in our careers, they have not turned out quite as we expected. We both have changed positions several times—for all the right reasons—but there are no pension plans vesting on our behalf. Our retirement funds are growing only through our individual contributions. Michael and I have a wonderful marriage with three great children. As I write this, two are in college and one is just beginning high school. We have spent a fortune making sure our children have received the best education available. One day in 1996, one of my children came home disillusioned with school. He was bored and tired of studying. “Why should I put time into studying subjects I will never use in real life?” he protested. Without thinking, I responded, “Because if you don't get good grades, you won't get into college.” “Regardless of whether I go to college,” he replied, “I'm going to be rich.”
