What is it that we as a nation are missing? Why, given all our skills, resources and talents, do we settle so often for the ordinary instead of striving to be the best? At the heart of Ignited Minds is an irresistible premise: that people do have the power, through hard work, to realize their dream of a truly good life. Kalam's vision document of aspiration and hope motivates us to unleash the dormant energy within India and guide the country to greatness.

It was like any other day on the Anna University campus in Chennai. As I was returning to my room in the evening, the vice-chancellor, Prof. A. Kalanidhi, fell in step with me. Someone had been frantically trying to get in touch with me through the day, he said. Indeed, the phone was ringing when I entered the room. When I answered, a voice at the other end said, 'The prime minister wants to talk with you.' Some months earlier, I had left my post as Principal Scientific Adviser to the Government of India to return to teaching. Now, as I spoke to the PM, Atal Bihari Vajpayee, my life was set for an unexpected change. Turning Points takes up the incredible Kalam story from where Wings of Fire left off. It brings together details from his career and presidency that are not generally known as he speaks out for the first time on certain points of controversy. It is a continuing saga, above all, of a journey - individual and collective - that will take India to 2020 and beyond as a developed nation.

A.P.J. Abdul Kalam was an Indian scientist and scholar who served his nation as president from 2002 to 2007. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam was an aviation researcher who joined India's guard office after moving on from the Madras Institute of Technology. He was a focal figure in the improvement of the nation's atomic capacities and was hailed as a public legend after a progression of effective tests in 1998. Kalam filled in as India's president for one term from 2002 to 2007 and passed on of respiratory failure on July 27, 2015.

This book, written after the demise of the missile man of India, is intended to showcase the wise words of Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam. During this occasion, when we are sharing the grief, this book filled with his quotations may ignite his memories and works as a fuel inside each one of us to walk towards national success. Without him we are continuing the march towards a glorious future, but he still persists in our memories as a mentor who will never stop without reaching the destiny. The book categorizes Abdul Kalam's quotes into different categories. Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam was viewed by the youth as a man of Inspirations. He had passed more quotes for the same cause. Meantime he had talked about national building and many other topics too. Have a look at this book and sail through the river of his everlasting wordings.

Gathers quotations and brief selections about happiness, faith, courage, confidence, self-discipline, love, hope, family life and contentment

This book is an account of how Dr. Kalam visualizes Information and Communication Technology mining the rural talent. Here, Dr. Kalam presents his dream of schools in India at 2020 as symbiotic nerve centres connecting teachers, students and community; personifying knowledge that exists in the world. He also makes a clarion call to accelerate the process of societal transformation. This would involve raising the standards of governance and safeguarding the sanctity of public institutions. The book uses the metaphor of a tree to describe the process of knowledge bearing fruits of prosperity in the contemporary globalized world where different phases, formative, adult working life, and post-50 experienced senior citizens, call for different kinds of learning. The book refers to a contextual contribution of a large number of Indian scientists and artists and proves that there is no age bar to blossom. He advocates creation of conditions that favour growth of diverse individual talents akin to a
